

A group, seven competences to help your business growing

You are :

- a business manager
- a business creator
- a business buyer
- an entrepreneur

You want to :

- buy a business
- develop your business
- manage your business
- sell a business

What we do :

We offer seven functions :

Accounting and tax services

Tax planning, preparation of financial statements and management accounts, forensic accounting, mergers and acquisitions taxation... We help you to fulfil your legal obligations and provide you with reliable information.

Be more relaxed and more available for your business !

Human resources management

Remuneration planning, payroll taxes, human resource planning, employee savings plans... We simplify your staff management.

Secure human resources and establish a trust building approach with your employees !

Law services

Corporate law, business law, contract law, property rights, mergers and acquisitions law...

Firms with financial difficulties, restructuring, Social and employment law, and Intellectual property law, labour law...

SAJE, our partner law office, provides legal consultancy for our clients.

Secure and improve your business, protect your family and your property!

Information technology and system management

Software development (accounting software,...), hardware, site development, maintenance, hotline.

We help you to build an efficient work environment.

Gain in efficiency and get ahead of your competitors !

Consulting, advisory services

Senior executive recruitment, business planning... Our specialists help you to make strategic choices.

Make project to enhance your company !

Training

Personal development, management, communication, desktop application, computer... Benefit from the french individual right to training (DIF) in order to enhance and get your employees to enhance.

Train today to be more competitive !

Financial Audit

The auditor evaluates whether the information, presented in the accounting records, is logical and reasonable. Auditing procedures are observing assets to verify existence and amount, collecting independent confirmations from external parties, evaluating internal control, appraising management's activities, and obtaining management representations.

Reassure your partners and improve your business operations